

ADMISSION FEE PAYMENT GUIDE FOR TRAINEE SOLICITORS 2026

Each application for admission to the Roll of Solicitors in Northern Ireland from a trainee solicitor carries a non-refundable fee of £50.

Advance Fee Payment

In order to help reduce the turnaround time, the Society now accepts payment of the admission fee in advance of the formal opening of the admissions process in September.

The fee may be paid by the trainee or an organisation. We do not issue invoices for this fee and there is no VAT charged.

Please follow the step-by-step guide below:

How to Pay the Admission Fee

- 1) Each trainee solicitor will have received an email which includes their unique Trainee ID.
- 2) Once received, the payee may open the online payment form HERE, noting the following:
 - i. If the trainee solicitor is paying the fee themselves, they should open this form and make payment.
 - ii. If the trainee solicitors is making the payment but is being reimbursed by an organisation, they should make payment via the online form and await the email enclosing receipt for reimbursement purposes.
 - iii. If the organisation is paying this fee directly on behalf of the trainee solicitor, they should share the above link, a copy of this Guide and their Trainee ID to the agreed representative from the organisation.
- 3) Upon opening the payment form, the user will be asked to select who is paying the admission fee:
 - If the fee is being paid for by the trainee solicitor, please select "Applicant".
 - If the fee is being paid for by the organisation, please select "Representative".
